

In celebration of National Poetry Month
Seabrook Village's Lifelong Learning Series presents:

Romancing the Kiss: A Poetry Workshop for Spring

"In the Spring a young man's fancy lightly turns to thoughts of love."

—Alfred, Lord Tennyson

There are all kinds of kisses: Familial. Reverential. Awkward. Sublime. The Hollywood Kiss. The kiss goodbye. The kiss that changes a life.

Join us for an hour of lively discussion and writing invitations as we take a fresh look from Shakespeare to The Shirelles at Love's most elemental expression of affection. . . the kiss. Led by NJSCA teaching artist/poet Shelley Benaroya. No previous writing experience required.

Monday, April 3rd, 2023
at 11:30 AM
Town Square Atrium

Image: The Kiss (Der Kuss) by Gustav Klimt, 1907-1908 @ Österreichische Galerie Belvedere in Vienna, Austria